CLINICAL PASTORAL EDUCATION (CPE)

January 7th – April 16, 2020

Description: This unit of CPE allows a student to take one or two academic classes or work part time while completing one unit of clinical pastoral education during the winter-spring semester. The sites allow students to learn in the community hospital setting and long term care setting.

Time Commitment: One unit of CPE is at least 400 hours of supervised clinical ministry. At least 100 hours must be in structured learning (peer group seminars and individual supervision). In the semester format, students need to be available 25 hours a week for up to 17 weeks. They also need to be available up to 40 hours a week for the first two weeks of orientation. Please note that the education group sessions may meet for two four hour blocks each week, one of which will potentially in an evening (e.g. 4-8) and one during a workweek day.

Tuition: $750 with a $250 non-refundable deposit that is applied to the tuition.

To apply: We accept the standard ACPE Application which may be sent to: CPECenter@fairview.org OR The Fairview CPE Center 2450 Riverside Ave. Minneapolis, MN 55454
